

Shropshire Apple Trust with the
Green Wood Centre and Severn Gorge Countryside Trust

Apple Day

Saturday October 9th 2010 10.30am – 5.00pm

The Green Wood Centre, Station Road, Coalbrookdale
Admission £3.00, Children Free, Senior Citizens £2.00

Bring good condition apples and take away some delicious free juice for drinking or fermentation to cider (1 full carrier bag of apples = 1 litre of juice)

YOU CAN LEAVE YOUR APPLES AT THE GREEN WOOD CENTRE FOR STORAGE from w/e 25th/26th September 2010 (No apples please from animal-grazed orchards) / Pick up a voucher when you leave apples.

- Use of the Gorge's 1-tonne twin-screw community apple press
- Hands-on milling and pressing of apples
- Small scale presses for children to use
- Free tastings from the display of old and traditional apple varieties
- Apple bobbing, toffee apples, WI stalls
- Country wines & juices to try and buy
- Coalbrookdale cider bar
- Delicious hog roast and vegetarian food including in the new cafe
- Live music!!
- Morris dancers
- Display of Severn Gorge Countryside's work in the Gorge
- Displays and demonstrations of the Green Wood Centre's craft work – basket making and 'hands on' pole lathing
- Pottery 'throwing'

A wonderful day out for all the family

In celebration of everything 'appley' and much more
NO APPLES? Come along anyway & buy some fresh juice

For further information contact

Tamzin Jones: 01952 432769 or Judy Walker: 01952 432769

NO PARKING AVAILABLE ON SITE
PARK AT DALE END

